I have consulted Prashanth multiple times for my younger kid, who has adenoids. Prashanth is friendly to kids and spends time to understand the exact problem and symptoms. he is patient enough to answer all the questions. rather than rushing for surgery he waited for 6 months to check if the kid is responding to medicines or not. i would recommend him to anyone looking for E&T treatments.

Dr Prashanth is very friendly and approachable as a person. He addresses to all the patient's concerns with utmost care. He is very quick in diagnosing the problem and treats with minimal medication. One of those rare doctors who responds to follow up consultations with the same zest. Highly recommended.
